Tito's
MEXICAN/AMERICAN FOOD

dinner $12.00

At the request of several of our members, we have committed our Chapter to TITO'S MEXICAN/AMERICAN RESTUARANT, in Carson City. It is located across from SMITHS SUPER-MRKT. (on hwy 50 or Williams). Our dinner will be a Mexican Buffet, consisting of salad, shrimp cocktail, chicken frajitas, beef taqitas, beans, rice, and coffee, tea, or milk. If you can't take Mexican food, they have a few American choices.

Our guest speaker will be Frank Amos, Deputy chief of Nevada Department of Invest-gation. He has a fine slide presentation on Nevada State Police history.

On a sad note, we lost two long-time Footprinters. CHUCK GORENCE, our PAST GRAND PRESIDENT, retired Det Sgt. of the Los Angeles Sheriffs Office, passed away on Oct. 18. Chuck is the Grand Pres. who swore in our Chapter and presented us with our Charter. Our condolences go to his family. We never went to L.A. and failed to stop at his and Shirley's home for a day or two. We will miss our friend of more than twenty-five years. Also we learned that GENE HARRIS, our member who was the helicopter pilot for San Francisco P.D. passed away in September. Our heartfelt thanks to these fine men who gave so much of themselves to Footprinterism. I'm sure that they are up there, lifting their glasses with Shirley, Tom Burton, Howard Mull, Ector Garcia, and all of our other Footprinter members, who have gone before.

Don't forget our Christmas Get-to-gether, at Vice-Pres. Ray Hoyt's home. For those of you who missed the last party, the address is 1355 Sanden Ln Minden. East on Johnson Lane to Vicki. Turn left a few blocks to Sanden and then right for a block. It's then the second house on the right... We'll phone you for any additional info. If your coming, give us a call so that we can know how many to expect. (267-2066)
