

CARSON VALLEY FOOTPRINTER

VOLUME 6

OCTOBER 1997

ISSUE 4

Our September Dinner/Meeting at Sugar's Restaurant was enjoyed by thirty-eight of our members. The highlight of our evening, beside the passing out of our new Footprinter shirts, was an inspiring talk from our newly appointed Sheriff Ron Pierini. I hear from our members that their steaks and the chicken was very good. That warrants a return in the future.

Thanks to ER, Chuck, for the nice recognition at the Elks annual LAW ENFORCEMENT DINNER. It is one of the things that will let the Valley residents know who we are. I had at least three people approach me for more information on the Footprinter Association, and took an application for membership.

Let's turn out, in force on October 3rd, 10:00 a.m., for the swearing in ceremony of our new Sheriff. (in our I.F.A. shirts), if you have them. Ron is one of our good members, and we want him to see that we support him.

Our next Dinner/Meeting, which is scheduled for Oct.9th, will be held at the Eagle's Hall, in Carson City. Our Chef, member John McSweeney, said that he will cook us a great steak dinner for only $12.00.

Hopefully, we'll have at least three members, to take their oath. Bill Reynolds, Bruce Folker, and Jack Webster. We welcome more, if they get their apps. in by then.

If we can get a good Guest Speaker, we'll certainly have on for the Eagle's Hall dinner/meeting.

Don't forget to "talk up" our 10th of November Spaghetti Feed/Auction. We need a good turnout. We also are hoping that our members are able to put an item or two, or three, in the auction, which will bring us some cash, for our TRIAD PROGRAM. The dinner/auction should be a great new annual function, and a great way to create funds for our endeavors.

We have the following I.F.A. shirts in stock for sale:

- 1 Men's "T" shirt (Med)
- 2 Ladies "T" shirt (XL)
- 1 Men's "Polo" (Med.)
- 2 Men's "Polo" (XXL)

(If interested, call us at 267-2066)

We will have our usual Pot-O-Gold, and we appreciate all the goodies donated and everyone who buys the tickets for the drawing.

WE HAVE FIVE (5) AD SPACES FOR SALE+++IF INTERESTED, PLEASE GIVE ME A CALL OR SEND YOUR BUSINESS CARD ALONG WITH A CHECK FOR $20.00 TO OUR ADDRESS: I.F.A. # 72, P.O. BOX 2242, MINDEN, NV 89423

EDITORS NOTE:

THIS WILL BE YOUR LAST BULLETIN, UNLESS YOUR 1997-98 DUES HAVE BEEN PAID. This applies to a very few members.

A man took his dog to a "Vet To find out if the dog was truly dead. The Vet put the dog on the table. He placed a kitten on the right side of the dog, but it never moved. Then he placed the kitten on the left side of the dog. Still the dog didn't move. The Vet then gave the dog owner a bill for $320.00. The man complained about the bill. The Vet. Told him that the $20.00 was for the office call. But, asked the dog owner, What about the $300.00. The Vet. Told him that it was for the "cat-scan." Sick, wasn't it.....

See ya !!!!.

TO: Fellow Footprint Member
FROM: Ronald P. Pierini
SUBJ: Swearing In Ceremony

Dear Member:

As you know, the Douglas County Commissioners appointed me to replace retiring Sheriff Jerry Maple effective October 3, 1997. I want to sincerely thank you for your support during the selection process.

I hope that you will be able to attend my "swearing In Ceremony" on October 3, 1997 at 10:00 am on the Old Court House steps, located at 1616 8th Street in Minden. the event will be approximately thirty minutes and refreshments will follow.

Again, I thank you for your support. I pledge to you that I will perform the duties of Sheriff to the very best of my ability and provide quality, proactive law enforcement services for the residents of Douglas County.

Respectfully,

Ronald P. Pierini
Undersheriff
