

CARSON VALLEY FOOTPRINTER

VOLUME 8

SEPTEMBER 1998

Our August dinner/meeting brought in sixty-six members, a great turn-out. Welcome to our Chap. Robert Dutton, Welcome also to Ron Eisman, who has returned from serious surgery. You certainly look great after your ordeal.

Next moth, our dinner/meeting will be held at the Carson City Eagles Hall. at 1380 East 5th St. Dinner will consist of steak etc. You can't beat a price of $12.00 per member. We hope to have an interesting guest speaker.

This is the last opportunity to pay dues. The Grand Chapter by-laws require us to drop members from our Chapter, if dues are not paid by September. There are only three of our members who haven't brought their dues up to date.

We were able to see our award, that we received, when I went to the National Convention, at Salt Lake City, Utah, last month. It will be placed on the wall of the Sheriff's Office, under, just over, our I.F.A. Charter, as you enter the building. Our Chapter can certainly be very proud of our accomplishments for the past year. Our membership was had a great increase, who we are happy to say, aren't merely "card carriers". I can't say that for many Chapters. We can understand that some of our members have jobs and commitments which make it difficult to attend some meetings, and we don't worry about them shirking our dinner/meetings.

What do you members think about the idea of having any of our members report to me the name or names of any sick/injured Chapter members? We surely want them to know that we are concerned about them. You can reach me at 267-2066. We can entitle it our "Sick, Lame, or Lazy Column". We can have our Secretary send them a "sympathy" or "get well" card.

If anyone has a suggestion for a dinner/meeting place, other than our usual, let me know, taking in consideration the price or distance factors. When our dinner cost gets up to $15.00, some of our members feel it a bit high. Of course, there will be one or two exceptions, but we can cope with that.

Our Secretary still has a few Chapter Polo shirts available. The sizes are 1- Med, 2 Large, 3-Ex-Large, and 4-XXL. The cost is $17.00 each. Call her at 267-2066, if interested.

Next dinner/meeting will be Thurs. SEPT. 17th at the EAGLE'S HALL.
